SWEET! Attention Book Lovers- Elinor Lipman is Coming for Dessert

You are invited for the best combination of evening activities to be imagined- a coffee/tea and dessert party with author Elinor Lipman. Thursday, November 30 at 7 pm at the Chase House at The Inns at Mill Falls, Meredith, join a lively group of book and dessert lovers as we celebrate the comic brilliance captured in Lipman's newest book, My Latest Grievance. Newsday says, "Elinor Lipman's ninth book has all its author's trademark strengths: astringent wit laced through with tenderness; wildly flawed characters who defy us to resist them; a flinty, clear-eyed gaze at bigotry and other human foibles; expertly calibrated tension between the comic and the profound; and a deceptively simple plot that spirals into brilliantly orchestrated farce."

How can you resist and evening so sweet? Northeast Cultural Coop invites you and your book-loving friends to come taste the delectable creations of the Inn at Mills Fall's pastry chef and listen to the humorous stories of Elinor Lipman. Tickets for this event are $25. and include dessert, reading, book-signing, and door prizes. Reservations can be charged by calling 603-464-0271, or send your check and reservation to NCC, PO Box 346, Amherst, NH 03031. Books will be available for purchase at the event. All proceeds will benefit education programs of the Northeast Cultural Coop, a 501 c 3 non-profit organization dedicated to celebrating cultures near and far. Visit www.NortheastCulturalCoop.org for additional information.
