

Lecture and Film Series on Africa for 2006 WinterSet

It isn't too late to sign up for this year's series of WinterSet programs. This weekly series of films and talks will be about various themes connecting to contemporary Africa and promised to be highly interesting and informative. The programs are open to the public but require pre-registration. The series will be held on January 26, February 2, 10, 16 and 23. All days are Thursdays, except for February 10, which is a Friday. The series includes a film at noon, with a bag lunch, followed by a lecture at 2 pm. The cost of the series is $50. per person. To read details and to print a registration form, visit www.NortheastCulturalCoop.org. If time runs out, you can register at the door, but advance registration is preferred. Once your form and check are received, you will be sent a reading list. Background readings and other books are available at local libraries for your convenience. Teachers and other educators are encouraged to attend. Professional Development hours will be credited and certificates awarded. School districts can share a series between various faculty members if desired. High School students are also welcome, but must follow the same registration guidelines. If you do not have access to a computer but would like to join us, please call 603-673-8470 and provide your name and address and a registration kit will be sent to you.
